- 1.9 To restore relationships.

2. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF LEARNERS

It is every learner's right:

RIGHTS	RESPONSIBILITY
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>➤ to be educated</li><li>➤ to be respected regardless of personal, religious or cultural differences</li><li>➤ to be treated fairly</li><li>➤ to learn in a safe and secure environment</li><li>➤ to work in a clean and litter-free environment</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>➤ responsibility to be committed to doing his / her best.</li><li>➤ responsibility to respect the individuality of others.</li><li>➤ responsibility to treat others in a fair manner.</li><li>➤ responsibility to adhere to School Rules.</li><li>➤ responsibility to maintain such an environment.</li></ul>

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LEARNER WITH RESPECT TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

It is expected of all learners enrolled at the School to uphold the principles contained in this Code of Conduct at all times, given that these principles are considered to be acceptable forms of behaviour in our society. Through their courtesy and behaviour, learners must aim to bring credit to the school, especially when in school uniform.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARENTS WITH RESPECT TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

1. The ultimate responsibility for a learner's behaviour rests with his/her parents/guardians and it is expected that parents/guardians will:
  - (a) Support the school and ensure that his/her/their child observes all school rules and regulations and the parent/guardian accepts responsibility for any misbehaviour on his/her/their child's part; and
  - (b) Take an active interest in his/her/their child's schoolwork and make it possible for the child to complete assigned homework.
2. Parents should attend meetings that the School and/or, the School Governing Body have convened for them.

3.11 Cellular Phones

Learners are strongly discouraged from bringing cellular phones or other valuable items to school. It is stressed that such items are brought to school expressly at the learner's own risk. The school shall in no way whatsoever, be held responsible should a cellular phone or valuable item go missing. It is acknowledged that a cellular phone may be brought to school for the sole purpose of a learner being able to contact his/her parent/s after official school hours. Cellular phones must be switched off prior to the learner entering the school grounds and should be handed in to the school office for safekeeping. The phone may be switched on again, only after he/she has exited the school grounds. In cases of urgency, a phone may be switched on again while on the school premises, but only after first obtaining permission from an educator and the call must be made in the presence of the educator. If a learner fails to switch his/her phone off prior to entering the school grounds and should it ring, or be used in any way whatsoever, the phone shall be confiscated and handed in to the school office for safekeeping. Under no circumstances will a confiscated phone be handed back directly to a learner. The phone will only be handed back to his/her parent/s. Should a learner fail to hand his/her cellular phone in at the school office for safekeeping and should the phone go missing, the School management will devote NO time whatsoever, towards establishing the whereabouts of the phone or how it came to be missing.

Any form of cyberbullying does not become a matter of the school. These social media platforms need to be monitored by the parent/guardian and close control measures should be adhered to.
